Church Covenant

Having been led, as we believe, by the spirit of God to receive the Lord Jesus as our Savior, we do solemnly and joyfully resolve:

To seek to uphold in every possible way the principles and teachings of the Word of God as we understand them.

To strive to maintain public worship in our church which is honoring to our Savior through conscientious attendance at the services and prayer and support for its leaders.

To conscientiously apply in our private lives the Christ-like spirit of meekness, humility, patience, compassion, justice, tolerance, and loving-kindness, and to the practice of prayer and Bible study.

To reverently and prayerfully practice all the Christian virtues within our homes, as the foundation of the daily life and of the training and nurture of our children in the love of God and His Church.

To strive to lead others to a saving knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ by sharing the gospel with them and living lives which recommend the Christian faith.

To make regular contributions, as God has prospered us, to the support of the home church, the missionary cause, and such other benevolences as promote God's Kingdom among men.

And, when removing from this vicinity, to take a letter of dismissal to a Bible-believing church, or if that is impractical or not preferable, to personally or by letter inform the church of our whereabouts and continuing interest, at least once every year.
