MISSIONARY MOMENT

MORNING

THOMAS THOMPSON is thankful for Southern Baptist supporters who gave his family their “dream job.” The Thompsons serve in Estonia. Its people tend to be extremely private, which hinders sharing the gospel with them. Even so, Thomas has enjoyed some successes. He and his family helped start an international church in Tallinn, Estonia’s capital city. Although he is busy translating the Gospels into Southern Estonian, Thomas teaches at a local school where he is permitted to share his faith. He was also able to share the gospel with “K,” a woman serving an 18-month prison sentence. K saw something different in Thomas while he taught English to her fellow inmates. No longer behind prison walls, K is learning the basics of the Christian faith. Pray for K to accept Christ.

EVENING

PETER YANES was born in the Philippines where Roman Catholicism is embedded in the customs, traditions, and lives of many Filipinos. As a young boy, Peter hoped to enter the priesthood. But in his teens, he met and became a follower of Jesus Christ. Today, Peter and his wife, IRENE, are sharing the gospel with people of all nations in Pennsylvania. Peter serves as the catalytic language missionary for Greater Philadelphia Baptist Resource Network. Peter provides leadership in planning, coordinating, implementing, and evaluating ministries that spread the gospel by starting new churches.

FIGHTER VERSE

Psalm 103:11-14 (ESV)

*For as high as the heavens are above the earth,
so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him;
as far as the east is from the west,
so far does he remove our transgressions from us.
As a father shows compassion to his children,
so the LORD shows compassion to those who fear him.
For he knows our frame;
he remembers that we are dust.*
